

Final Format for
'Annual Reports to the people- Health Sector'

1. Foreword,
2. Acknowledgements
3. Abbreviations
4. Contents.
5. Executive Summary- 4 pages.

Chapter 1: Vision and Objectives: 2 pages

- Vision, goals and objectives
- The overarching global scenario and its impact on the sector
- Present challenges
- Analysis of the decisions of important Committees / consultations in the sector
- Issue of Sust Dev, Peoples Participation, PPP
- Convergence of Health and allied sector
- Decentralised Governance
- Significant gaps
- Future directions

Chapter 2: Inclusion: 2 pages

- growth and development of the sector
- Issues of access, equality of opportunity to all social, economic religious groups,
- issues of inter-regional differences
- Plan of Action for removing these imbalances,
- community participation,
- role of voluntary sector / civil society organizations,
- PPP in promoting inclusive agenda

Chapter 3: Stenghtening State health Systems: 30 pages

(include Ayush, Human Resources, Quality issues, Infrastructure development in primary, secondary and tertiary sector, nutrition, evaluation and monitoring mechanism HMIS)

Pradhan Mantri Swasthya Suraksha Yojana (PMSSY) as part of tertiary health care

Chapter 4: RCH: and Disease control programmes: 10 pages

Chapter 5: NACP, NCDs including mental Health, oral health, geriatric health

Chapter 6: Medical Education, biomedical and health research

Chapter 7: Private Sector: regulation, stewardship, food and drug control etc.10 pages

Specific focus to

- issues of quality and excellence,
- transformation and reforms in the sector,
- issues of governance and leadership,
- issues relating to qualified manpower, autonomy and accountability,
- R&D promotion, international developments and scenarios,
- new and innovative approaches of service delivery
- best practices & illustrative failures

Chapter 8: Financing 2 pages

- rationalization of user charges,
- financial requirements of various stakeholders,
- approaches to meet these financial requirements including support from Central and State Governments.

Chapter 9. Conclusions:4 pages

- Future Direction and agenda for section