

Social Welfare Division

The Social Welfare Division handles two sectors; (i) Social Welfare; and (ii) Women and Child Development. The Social Welfare Sector deals the welfare, rehabilitation and development of persons with disabilities, social deviants and other disadvantaged in close co-ordination with the nodal Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment and the Women and Child Development sector handles Empowerment of women and Development of Children in close co-ordination with the nodal Department of Women and Child Development. The primary functions of the Division, inter-alia, include the following:

Social Welfare

1. Over all Policy Guidance / Advice both Governmental (central and State levels) and non-Governmental Organisations in the field of Social Welfare
2. Work relating to Five Year and Annual Plans (Social Welfare)
3. Mid-Term Appraisal.
 - i) Review of the progress of implementation of Policies and Programmes
 - ii) Review of achievements in relation to the targets (both physical and financial)
 - iii) Suggestions for Mid Term corrections.
4. Advisory role with regard to functioning of Subordinate / Attached Organisations viz. National Institutes (National Institute of Orthopaedically Handicapped (NIOH), Calcutta: National Institute of Visually Handicapped (NIVH), Dehradun etc.

Women and Child Development (WCD)

The Women and Child Development Division handles all the work relating to - i) Empowerment of Women; and ii) Development of Children in close co-ordination with the nodal Department of Women and Child Development. The primary functions of the Division, inter-alia, include the following:

1. Over all Policy Guidance / Advice to both Governmental (central and state levels) and Non-Governmental Organizations in the field of Women and Child Development.
2. Work relating to Five Year and Annual Plans
3. Mid-Term Appraisal
 1. Preview of the progress of implementation of Policies and Programmes,
 2. Review of achievements in relation to the targets (both physical and financial),
 3. Suggestions for Mid-Term corrections.
4. Advisory role with regard to the Subordinate/Attached Organisations viz, National Commission for Women (NCW), New Delhi; Central Social Welfare Board (CSWB), Rashtrya Mahila Kosh (RMK), New Delhi.